Meet Our New Producers

We see Patience, our beautiful copper-pot still as part of the Anno family. She is a great asset and clearly in a distillery we couldn't do without her!

Hatched in 1993, at a time when most ales on the market were brown, Rooster's Brewing Co. fast developed a reputation for brewing ground-breaking, hop-forward pale ales that showcase exciting new hops from the USA.

Originally established in the UK in 1965, our award winning range includes both new and old world wines and we also ferment fruit wines, chocolate wines, tonic wines, communion wines, mulled wines and perry.

Established in 1872, Adnams is best-known as a brewer of beer. Whilst beer and pubs remain at the heart of our business, we also own and run three lovely coastal hotels, make our own hand-crafted spirits, import wines for our Adnams Stores and run an online store.

Great cider is a timeless joy to us at Apple County. We make real cider and perry from 100% freshly pressed juice. Each cider is made from a single variety of bitter-sweet apples all grown in local orchards. We approach cider-making with all the skills and reverence of a traditional winemaker, allowing the distinctive flavours of each variety to develop through a slow, cool fermentation.

Unsurprisingly we are located in the spectacular bay of Dunnet, where the freshest of air and the finest of water are in abundance. Our goal is to create spirits which reflect the Caithness way. We hand distil slowly, thoughtfully and passionately to create our exceptional products.

Rock Rose

We brew a wide range of beers, some traditional, some modern, some quite unique – but we always aim for the highest quality and that distinctive Hogs Back character.

Craft Beer: A definition....

There is no strict definition on craft beer in the UK, however we believe that a beer / cider can be called craft because:

- They are generally, produced on a smaller scale, by more local breweries who introduce more distinct characteristics and styles and are more likely to be bottle conditioned, e.g. Porters, Amber Ales, IPA etc.
- Packaging can be more individual and quirky. Most likely to have won awards.
- Brewed in a smaller batch, heavy with materials (grain and particularly hops) so more expensive to brew.
- They tend to push the boundaries of what is expected in terms of style and flavours."

Arkell's beer is still brewed in much the same way as it was when John Arkell first made it in 1843 and the brewery buildings seem untouched by the passing years.

The company has remained true to the principles of loyalty, quality and tradition set down by its founder 170 years ago, but it has also adapted brilliantly to the changing world around it.

The Team

A quiet backwater with delightful terraces of houses dating back to the 1600's is hardly the place you would expect to find a working brewery. Operating a busy thirteen hectolitre brew-plant, our methods are as old as the hills and our ingredients, top quality and locally sourced. As a family run business, we are very proud of our award winning beers, bottled into clear glass as we think it is important to see the beautiful gold and amber colours of the range. The striking Cheltenham SPA brand will grace any table and reflects the Regency elegance of the town.

Based just outside Bath in the village of Holt, Box Steam is an independent brewer run by three generations of the Roberts family. We've been brewing an award-winning range of traditional cask and bottled beers for more than 10 years.

Box Steam is home to one of only a handful of Master Brewers in the UK. Philip and his team create ales with real character, beautifully engineered by hand in the brewery's steam copper. We use traditional, floor malted barley exclusively from Britain's oldest working maltings at Warminster, and only whole hops - mostly English varieties such as Fuggles and Goldings, and sometimes specialist American hops such as Cascade, added for their aroma. Staying true to the Great British brewing tradition, with the addition of a little personality and a lot of enthusiasm - that's the Box Steam way.

James & Martin

Bored of industrially brewed lagers and stuffy ales that dominated the UK beer market James Watt & Martin Dickie decided the best way to fix this undesirable predicament was to brew our own. Consequently in April 2007 BrewDog was born. Both only 24 at the time, we leased a building in Fraserburgh, got some scary bank loans, spent all our money on stainless steel and started making some hardcore craft beers. They brewed tiny batches, filled bottles by hand and sold our beers at local markets and out of the back of our beat up old van. Our biggest mission when we set up BrewDog was to make other people as passionate about great craft beer as we are. And that is still our biggest mission today.

Fentimans beverages are botanically brewed and contain all the flavour and goodness from the finest natural ingredients. This results in an invigorating and full-flavoured taste that sets Fentimans apart. Botanical brewing is a simple process involving herbs and plant roots.

Thomas Fentiman's original recipe involved milling ginger roots before tumbling them into copper steam jacketed pans and leaving them to bubble and simmer releasing all their flavour.

Unlike other so-called ginger beers, ours is the real thing. Using only the finest Chinese ginger root.

Using only the finest Chinese ginger root we botanically brew Hollows & Fentimans All Natural Alcoholic Ginger Beer. There's no wine, nuts, hops, malts or any other artificial nonsense, that's why we call it an All Natural Ginger Beer. The quality and superior taste of Hollows is attributed to the traditional slow fermentation and botanical brewing method.

We're a small family-owned brewery tucked away in the village of Tongham, in the heart of the old Surrey hop-growing region. We first opened our doors on the 4th August 1992, in 18th century farm buildings that at various times have stored wheat, and housed cattle and, appropriately, hogs. The brewhouse was what is now our shop and the very first brew was TEA, which was an instant hit.

The Team

Developed by the team behind Mr Trotter's Great British Pork Crackling, food writers Tom Parker Bowles and Matthew Fort and beer guru Rupert Ponsonby, Mr Trotter's is the first chestnut beer ever to be brewed and bottled in the UK. Mr Trotter's Great British Chestnut Ale blends roasted sweet chestnuts with malted Maris Otter barley to produce the happy harmony for which the Mr Trotter Team were looking. The chestnuts give a nutty creaminess to the brew and a honeyed note, which balances the spiciness of the English-grown Cascade and Bramling Cross hops. Tom Parker Bowles adds: "This is a fine ale, with great balance and works wonders with both Mr Trotter's Original Pork Crackling, and new Jalapeno flavour."

Salopian Brewery was founded as Snowdonia Brewery in 1994 by Brewer Martin Barry at his Pub in North Wales. In 1995 he relocated to Shrewsbury and renamed it Salopian (meaning of Shrewsbury). At that time it was the smallest commercial brewery in the country (not attached to a Pub) with a 2 barrel brewlength. Today due to ongoing popular demand fuelled by an hurray of awards the brewery as once again relocated to much larger premises.

The Brewery

Brewing the finest quality hand crafted beers and ales in the Staffordshire Moorlands. Traditionally brewed with pride. In the heart of the Staffordshire Moorlands, in 2002, we started brewing hand-crafted beers in the garden shed, with two fermenters and a four barrel plant, bottling in the kitchen! As sales grew, production was moved to Cheddleton, enabling a six barrel plant to be set up. Further investment in 2010 saw new recipe development and production increased to twenty barrels. All Staffordshire Brewery bottled beers are triple cold filtered and carbonated giving them the characteristic sparkle and taste in the bottle.

Established at The Talbot Inn, Knightwick, Worcestershire in 1997, with strong ties to the local hop growing industry through it's owner Annie Clift and her family.

With three hop growers within a mile of the brewery, we are proud to use only Worcestershire grown hops in our cask and bottle conditioned beers. The English hop varieties we use give the beers familiar, recognisably English flavours.

The first Thornbridge craft beers were produced in February 2005 in the grounds of the historic country house, Thornbridge Hall. Our original Hall Brewery continues to operate in developing new, seasonal and speciality beers. A new state of the art brewery at Bakewell was opened in September 2009 new ones through innovation in process and use of ingredients. This also allowed us to brew on a much larger scale. Our beers have gained considerable success with over 350 industry and consumer awards being won in regional, national and international competitions. In addition to the domestic growth of Thornbridge beer, we now also export to over 30 countries in 5 continents.

Hey we're Tiny Rebel, and welcome to our world. It all began in a garage back in 2008 where me (Brad) and Gazz homebrewed on weekends. We got pretty good at it and as we are beer geeks at heart we always took things that one step further. In 2010 the idea for Tiny Rebel was born, with the result being our official launch in February 2012. Only a year after opening, we took the Great Welsh Beer Festival by storm and won Gold, Silver and Bronze in the Champion Beer of Wales competition. Our latest achievement was winning Gold for the 2nd year running in the Champion Beer of Wales competition.

Brewing in Devizes since 1875. Wadworth are a fourth generation independent family Brewer. 6X has been brewed for more than 90 years and whilst we have made improvements as brewing techniques have modernised, it's still the same great beer it's always been. 6X is tried and tested, has a very high drinkability with excellent balance of malt and hops. The "6X" dates back to the markings on the barrels in the Brewery. Different beers have different markings and the beer with 6 X's on it was our most popular.

Founded in 1980 in the small village of Wistanstow on the edge of the Shropshire Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. The Wood family were looking to create good local Real Ale to combat the onslaught of bland keg beers at that time. Under the management of Edward Wood and his team the brewer is now into it's 4th decade producing fine ales such as Shropshire Lad, Lass and Parish. We hope that you enjoy our beers!

Wold Top Brewery was founded in 2003 by arable farmers Tom and Gill Mellor. Based high on the Yorkshire Wolds where the hills roll down to the North Sea, ours is a family business that is run by the third and fourth generation Mellors and we pride ourselves on brewing superior quality beer from home grown barley and water that is gently filtered by the chalk of the Yorkshire Wolds and drawn from the farm's own borehole.

Home of the legendary Hobgoblin, the Wychwood Brewery is tucked away behind the main street of the market town of Witney, in the heart of the Oxfordshire Cotswolds. The Wychwood brewery is named after the Wychwood forest found close by. Much of the inspiration for Wychwood's fantasy themed branding comes from the legends associated with these local woodlands. A relative new comer to the brewing fraternity having only been founded in 1983, Wychwood has certainly made its mark producing an exciting and diverse range of award winning ales.

Ben & Steph

Great cider represents a timeless joy to Ben and Steph Culpin from Apple County. They make real cider and perry from their orchards and local orchards on lush, rolling Monmouthshire hills. Their approach to cider-making is reverential, akin to winemaking. Each cider is made from a single bitter-sweet apple variety using 100% freshly pressed juice. They develop distinguished character and complex flavours through a long, slow fermentation process. Multi-award winning Apple County is putting Monmouthshire on the world cider map – winning a prestigious Great Taste Awards 'Golden Fork' as overall best food and drink product from Wales! Discover a taste of Apple County for yourself by simply opening a bottle.

One autumn Rick Parfitt and Francis Rossi came to Herefordshire to visit our farm and spent the day harvesting and pressing Herefordshire Cider Apples and as a result of the visit we decided on a joint venture to produce – Status Quo Down Down 4.6% Herefordshire Cider.

The Sheppy family have been perfecting premium cider making for almost 200 years.

Despite the recent resurgence of a number of new craft ciders fighting for attention, the Sheppy family have remained true to their heritage and tradition - making cider just the way it should be!

The farm is owned and managed by the Sheppy family and head cider maker, David Sheppy is now the 6th generation.

Unfamiliar varieties of apples are grown in their 70 acre orchards - plus additional varieties from other specialist growers which produce their award winning artisan ciders.

William

Born out of curiosity Willy is now ready to show his cider to the world. Starting with the apples that are grown on his family farm in Ledbury, Willy and the farm hands scrub and wash the apples then fresh press to extract the juice.

Pips and stalks are left in to ensure the pure apple taste. The fresh apple juice, taken from over 18 traditional bittersweet cider varieties and is then fermented using British yeast from the old oak vats that clutter the farm.

Charlie

We are one of the last farmer cider makers left in this country as we grow, press, ferment and bottle all on our own farm. Clive's Worcestershire Wobblejuice has been produced on the farm for over 70 years. It was first made to pay the agricultural labourers and has remained a farm favourite ever since! The Cider is dry with a hint of fizz, a blend of our own home-grown apples which is left to ferment and mature over time until we consider it Wobbly enough to drink! The resulting drink is crisp and refreshing similar to a Breton cider. The Perry is made from perry pears grown in old orchards just up the road mixed in with our conference, comice and concorde pears. It has a crisp, dry taste with a hint of fizz.

Hogan's ciders and perry are made in the Malvern Hills from 100% fresh pressed cider apples and perry pears grown in the Three Counties of Gloucestershire, Herefordshire and Worcestershire. The juice is fermented slowly and naturally during cold winter months, and in spring, a leisurely period of maturation takes place prior to skilled blending. Since commencing the business in 2005, Hogan's Cider has won numerous awards, including 1st Place and Reserve Supreme Champion for Hogan's Medium Bottled Cider in the Royal Bath and West Show for two consecutive years. Hogan's Hazy Daisy was awarded a Gold Medal at the International Cider Challenge 2014.

Made only from fresh pressed cider fruit and precious little else, Hogan's brings you the authentic taste of the English orchard.

The Team

We're a small family-owned brewery tucked away in the village of Tongham, in the heart of the old Surrey hop-growing region. We first opened our doors on the 4th August 1992, in 18th century farm buildings that at various times have stored wheat, and housed cattle and, appropriately, hogs. The brewhouse was what is now our shop and the very first brew was TEA, which was an instant hit.

Award Winning cider makers since 1920! As craft cider makers we strive to create the most interesting and exciting ciders we can, by firstly thinking a little differently, and secondly by attempting to combine the rules and traditions of farm house ciders with a modern approach to craft fermentation and aging. This means keeping things as simple as possible - using the very best fresh apples, small batch techniques, wild yeasts and 100% juice. The result is a beautiful range of distinctive whole juice ciders, full of character, charm and flavour.

We believe that Adnams is the first brewery / distillery in England to be able to produce high quality vodka, gin, whisky and more from 'grain to glass'. We use the same local ingredients to make our spirits - barley, rye, wheat and oats - as we do for our beers. Our distillery, the Copper House, sits within the Adnams brewery in Southwold. It's the most energy-efficient distillery in the UK and also generates water and steam for the brewery, so forming an integral part of our overall sustainable production system. We use the best modern distilling techniques and a small batch process in order to create spirits with exceptional purity, quality and, of course, flavour.

Fentimans beverages are botanically brewed and contain all the flavour and goodness from the finest natural ingredients. This results in an invigorating and full-flavoured taste that sets Fentimans apart. Botanical brewing is a simple process involving herbs and plant roots.

Thomas Fentiman's original recipe involved milling ginger roots before tumbling them into copper steam jacketed pans and leaving them to bubble and simmer releasing all their flavour.

Hogan's ciders and perry are made in the Malvern Hills from 100% fresh pressed cider apples and perry pears grown in the Three Counties of Gloucestershire, Herefordshire and Worcestershire. The juice is fermented slowly and naturally during cold winter months, and in spring, a leisurely period of maturation takes place prior to skilled blending. Since commencing the business in 2005, Hogan's Cider has won numerous awards; the most recent being 1st Place and Reserve Supreme Champion for Hogan's Medium Bottled Cider in the Royal Bath and West Show, following on from a 1st in the same category last year. Hogan's were also awarded a Silver Medal for both the Dry and the Medium Bottled Cider at the Great Lakes International Cider & Perry Competition, USA.

The Distillery

The vision behind our small Cornish distillery is to make great-tasting spirits with integrity. We aim to do this by going back to basics: using traditional techniques, quality ingredients and old-fashioned equipment. We believe the human touch in everything is absolutely crucial for superiority. TRUE TO OUR VISION Our copper pot still is fired by flame and judged by eye. Our botanicals are selected by sight and feel. Our bottles are all individually filled, corked, sealed, labelled, numbered and waxed by hand. Our spirits are rigorously tested by nose and taste.

We're located in the perfect spot in the old village of Penderyn, nestled in the foothills of the Brecon Beacons, and there we have created the best little distillery in Wales. And the smoothest whisky on earth. At Penderyn we produce just one cask per day of the finest malted barley spirit, which, when matured, is recognised worldwide as one of the finest malt whiskies.

The majority of our spirit goes into cask for ageing in our cellars. Minute quantities are diverted to craft our other award-winning products.

Developed from an old English liqueur recipe based on a family recipe dating back to the 1840s. Basically meaning Gin, whole fruit and sugar are placed into a barrel, and left to mature for at least three months. We grow most of the Damsons on our smallholding in Worcestershire without the use of pesticides and herbicides. In years where our crop is reduced by frost, we buy in from other smallholdings in the area. We continue to plant new fruit trees with the aim of becoming self sufficient, recently we've planted 1500 cherry trees. Topsy Fruit Gins are wonderful drunk neat as a liqueur at the end of a meal, or as a winter warmer in a hip flask. Damson, Cherry or Blackcurrant also make a wonderful base for sauces, to accompany rich meats such as duck or game birds.

The Great British Gin Revival

- The quintessentially British drink.
- A surge in the juniper-based spirit's popularity has seen a dramatic rise in the number of craft gin makers setting up business.
- Last year, it is estimated that gin sales topped £1bn for the first time
- Like craft beer, new-wave gin has appealed to a younger generation of drinkers, who crave quality and authenticity in their booze. 42% of 18- to 34 year-olds have recently tried gin and a whole sub-culture has emerged around its consumption.
- Gin distillers have responded to this interest with increasing, radical experimentation. Beyond the basic, predominant juniper, coriander and citrus botanicals, gins now regularly feature unusual ingredients such as wild clover, basil, cassia bark, rosemary, Arbequina olives, pine, angelica or Jasmine tea.

Tom & Sion

W.E. are Warner Edwards. Great friends and craft distillers, we carefully and lovingly create beautiful artisan spirits. Over our first two years of distillation we have been globally recognised by winning several top prizes at the world's biggest spirits competitions, not least, most recently double gold at the San Francisco World Spirits Competition. From a 200 year old converted barn on our farm in the quaint village of Harrington, Northamptonshire, Curiosity, our magnificent copper pot still works her magic. She takes our farms' pure, natural spring water, grain spirit, home-grown elderflower, plus ten other secret botanicals, and transforms them into a fantastically smooth and aromatic dry gin. Each batch is small, and every single bottle is carefully handcrafted by us, from the filling to the wax seal and label finishing.

The effervescent and individual taste has been created by using a blend of natural cucumber essence and gently sparkling spring water, creating the fresh flavour which is Qcumber. Eldon

Fentimans beverages are botanically brewed and contain all the flavour and goodness from the finest natural ingredients. This results in an invigorating and full-flavoured taste that sets Fentimans apart. Botanical brewing is a simple process involving herbs and plant roots.

Thomas Fentiman's original recipe involved milling ginger roots before tumbling them into copper steam jacketed pans and leaving them to bubble and simmer releasing all their flavour.
